

Catholic Certificate in Religious Studies for Deaf People

CCRS is an accredited course approved by the Bishops Conference of England & Wales

CCRS course for Deaf People - what is it and who is it for?

It is an intensive course on Catholic faith development, learning how to teach and share Christian faith with other people.

- it is suitable for Catholic Deaf people who wish to teach/catechise or be involved in pastoral work with Deaf people;
- it is an opportunity for personal faith development and work with other people;
- it offers an understanding and insight into Catholic theology;
- taught by Deaf tutors using sign language and Deaf culture;
- it is a three year course of 24 Saturdays: 9.30 am – 4.30 pm.

The course involves:

Group discussions, time for questions and answers, individual activity - research, study, thinking, reflection and prayer; Sign Language, visual resources, assignments and one project work. Above all, it is Deaf-friendly!

It is open to hearing people proficient in sign language (min level 2) as it is the primary language used throughout the course; there will be no interpreters.
